December 6-15

Adapted by Ed Monk

Roebbling Theater

A Christmas Carol is dramatized with flair and wit, in a version first performed by the Royal Shakespeare Company. This adaptation of the ageless story captures Dickens' ironic point of view while it creates a panoramic view of Victorian London. All of the beloved characters are in place.

Free Birdie by Delaney Hardy

Roebbling Theatre

No Exit joins two women and one man who are locked up together for eternity in one hideous room in Hell. The windows are bricked up and the electric lights can never be turned off, and there is no exit.

Free Birdie focuses on Benjamin Bratter, an uptight New York banker, who gets the surprise of a lifetime when he opens his door to find Birdie May, an exotic stranger, looking for a place to stay.

Giacomo Puccini's, Sister Angelica, takes you through a heart wrenching tale of piety, passion, and penance. Sister Angelica is a Florentine noblewoman forced to enter a convent by her family after the birth of her child.

The Impresario, by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, focuses on a small-time opera company with big-time problems, spurred on by the rivalry between the resident diva and an up-and-coming ingénue.

June 5-14

By William Shakespeare
Full Length Play
Roebbling Theater

A Midsummer Night's Dream portrays the events surrounding the marriage of Theseus, the Duke of Athens, to Hippolyta. These include the adventures of young Athenian lovers and a group of six amateur actors who are controlled and manipulated by the fairies who inhabit the forest.

July 17-26

Adapted by Charles Way

Roebbling Theater

The Borrowers tells the story of a family of little people who live beneath the kitchen floor of a deteriorating English country home.
